

Class of 1983

Alumnus Jeffrey Westhoff Pens Novel

Cathedral Prep Alumnus, Jeffrey Westhoff '83, introduced his debut novel, The Boy Who Knew Too Much, during a visit to the Raymond M. Blasco Me-memorial Library on July 25. The novel is a young adult spy thriller about a Milwaukee teenager who stumbles onto an espionage conspiracy while on a school trip to Europe. The book was inspired by Westhoff's memories of a European trip he took while a student at Cathedral Prep.

After graduating from Prep, Westhoff studied journalism at Marquette University and worked for more than 25 years as a film critic in the Chicago area. He is currently a freelance writer whose work has appeared at RogerEbert.com. He lives in Chicago with his wife Jeanette.

Copies of the novel are available to purchase online through Amazon, Barnes & Noble and at select independent bookstores.